PETITION FOR THE UNITY OF THE CHURCH:

Again we pray to the Lord our Saviour to preserve the Orthodox Church abiding in the whole world in unity and right belief, and to grant her peace and tranquility, love and consent, let us all say Lord, hearken and have mercy.

Again we pray to look upon the Holy Orthodox Church with the goodness of heart and with mercy, and to preserve her from divisions and schisms, from hostility and disorder, so her unity will not be diminished or shaken, but Thine Thrice-Holy name be glorified in her, let us all say, Lord, hearken and have mercy.

PRAYER FOR PEACE: Most-merciful Lord, Jesus Christ, our God, through the prayers of Our All-Pure Lady Theotokos and Ever Virgin Mary, the Holy Equal-to-the-Apostles Grand Duke Vladimir and Grand Duchess Olga, the Holy New Martyrs and Confessors of our Church, our venerable and God-bearing Fathers Anthony and Theodosius, the Kiev-Perchersk Wonderworkers, Sergius, Abbot of Radonezh, Job of Pochaev, Seraphim of Sarov and all the saints, make our prayer fruitful for the church and for all Your people.

From a single font of Baptism, which under the Holy Prince Vladimir, we, Your children, have received grace, establish the spirit of brotherly love and peace in our hearts forever!

By Thy grace, instruct those in power for every good, shelter the homeless, feed the hungry, the sick and suffering - strengthen and heal those in sorrow and confusion - give good hope, comfort, and forgiveness of sins to those involved and blessed repose to those slain in battle.

Fill us even in Thee with faith, hope and love, as if in all our countries with one mouth and one heart we confess to You, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, with Your Father without beginning, Your Most Holy Good and Life-giving Spirit is and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
