FROM HOLY HUMOR:

On Easter Sunday, worshippers entering the sanctuary at McMasters United Methodist Church, Turtle Creek, PA, were greeted by two giant, red captial letters – M-T -- flanking the reredos behind the altar. M-T stands, of course, for “empty,” and the good news of the vacant tomb.

Rev. Jeffrey D. Sterling planned to quiz the children about the M-T during the children's message early in the service. With 28 brightly dressed little ones gathered around him on the chancel steps, the pastor asked: “What's different about the church today, kids?”

After a pause, Sterling's own daughter, throwing her hands into the air, replied: “It's full, dad!”
End of sermon.
